DIRECTOR'S NOTE

I encountered Death and the Ploughman at the tiny Gate Theater in London two years ago and it stopped me in my tracks. The profundity and continued relevance of this text, written in 1401 in German, in Bohemia at a paradigm-shifting moment in human history, is a remarkable human achievement. It was written at a time when the theretofore accepted medieval sensibilities were suddenly called into question—faith, the meaning of life, religious hierarchy, authority—leading to the start of the Renaissance.

Today we are undergoing another paradigm shift where religion, values, and meaning must be examined from fresh new angles. This play by Johannes von Saaz can be a great help to us now. Listen closely and be transformed.

CONNECTING HOP ARTISTS TO THE COMMUNITY

At Dartmouth, SITI Company director Anne Bogart led an informal discussion with Department of Theater students and faculty.

ABOUT THE ARTISTS

SITI Company in its second decade of activity, began as an agreement between Tadashi Suzuki and Anne Bogart to establish a new venture in the United States that would emphasize international cultural exchange and collaboration. SITI believes in a commitment to the power of the theater as a source of spiritual strength in the contemporary global environment. Originally envisioned as a summer institute in Saratoga Springs, NY, SITI grew quickly into a year-round theater company based in New York City with an office and studio. Saratoga Springs is now SITI's summer home.

An ensemble-based theater company, SITI exemplifies the disciplines it practices and the artistic values it develops in its work. The company's mission is to create new works for the theater, to perform and tour these productions nationally and internationally, to provide ongoing training for young theater professionals in an approach to acting that forges unique and highly disciplined artists for the theater, and to foster opportunities for cultural exchange with theater professionals and audiences from all over the world.

In addition to Artistic Director Anne Bogart, SITI Company is comprised of ten actors, five designers, a playwright, stage manager, development director and managing director. The company represents a change in thinking about the relationships between artists and institutions. One way SITI is accomplishing its mission is by integrating into other organizations of the existing American and international theater systems. Examples include our ongoing relationships with Wexner Center for the Arts, Actors Theatre of Louisville, the Walker Art Center, Performing Arts Chicago, On the Boards, Magic Theatre, Krannert Center, Theater Emory, Classic Stage Company and the Brooklyn Academy of Music. SITI affiliations with universities include New York University, The Juilliard School, Columbia University, The Ohio State University, University of Louisville, Ohio University, Utah State University, Emory University and St. Edward's University. Every June the Company continues to gather for our annual Summer Intensive at Skidmore College in Saratoga Springs. Internationally, SITI has performed and led training in Japan, Germany, France, the Czech Republic, Wales, the Georgian Republic, Ireland, Turkey, Italy, Australia, Canada, Colombia, Scotland, England, Israel, Denmark and Holland.

SITI recently premiered systems/layers (a collaboration with music group Rachel's). Last season, SITI premiered A Midsummer Night's Dream at San Jose Repertory Theatre and Death and the Ploughman at the Wexner Center. Other SITI productions include Orestes, The Medium, Small Lives/Big Dreams, Going, Going, Gone, Miss Julie, Culture of Desire, Bob, Private Lives, Alice's Adventures, Cabin Pressure, War of the Worlds, Room, bobrauschenbergamerica, Hayfever, La Dispute and Score. Future productions include: Macbeth, Intimations for Saxophone, Insult to the Brain, Hotel Cassiopeia and Reunion.

SITI Company performed War of the Worlds-The Radio Play at the Hopkins Center on October 6, 2001.

For Information regarding SITI Company's New York City Fall Training Studio beginning in October in both the Suzuki Method of Actor Training and the Viewpoints, please call the SITI Office at 212.868.0860.

Anne Bogart director is the Artistic Director of SITI Company, which she founded with Japanese director Tadashi Suzuki in 1992.
