SCORE

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

SCORE is the final piece of a triptych of plays about the artistic process. BOB, the first of the three shows and based on the life and work of Robert Wilson appeared at NYTW in the spring of 1998. ROOM, the second play, inspired by the life and writings of Virginia Woolf, was seen in New York City at the Classic Stage Company in 2002. All three plays, originally commissioned by the Wexner Center, went on to tour theaters and festivals around the world. SCORE, with the persona of the great conductor and composer Leonard Bernstein at its center, celebrates a man's passionate relationship to music. Known as an exuberant communicator as well as a talented musician, Bernstein inspired several generations to approach classical music with interest, curiosity and openness.

SITI COMPANY

SITI Company is an ensemble-based theater company led by Anne Bogart.

Its mission is:

- To create bold new productions;
- To perform and tour these productions nationally and internationally;
- To train together consistently;
- To train theater professionals and students in an approach to acting and collaboration that forges unique and highly disciplined artists for the theater;
- To create opportunities for artistic dialogue and cultural exchange.

Founded in 1992 by Anne Bogart and Tadashi Suzuki, SITI Company began as an agreement to redefine and revitalize contemporary theater in the United States through an emphasis on international cultural exchange and collaboration. Originally envisioned as a summer institute in Saratoga Springs, New York, SITI expanded to encompass a year-round company based in New York City with a summer season in Saratoga. The company is known nationally and internationally as a top level artistic collective that generates groundbreaking theater while training artists from around the world.

In addition to Artistic Director Anne Bogart, SITI Company is comprised of ten actors, five designers, a playwright, stage manager, development director and managing director. The company represents a change in thinking about the relationships between artists and institutions. SITI Company has formed relationships with theaters and venues around the world who present the Company's work.

Examples include our ongoing relationships with Actors Theatre of Louisville; American Repertory Theater; Brooklyn Academy of Music; Classic Stage Company; Walker Art Center; and the Wexner Center for the Arts. Internationally, SITI has performed and led training in Japan, Germany, France, the Czech Republic, Wales, the Georgian Republic, Ireland, Turkey, Italy, Australia, Canada, Colombia, Scotland, England, Israel, Denmark and Holland.

SITI recently premiered IMITATIONS FOR SAXAPHONE at the Arena Stage in Washington D.C., SYSTEMS/LAYERS at Utah State University and A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM at San Jose Repertory Theatre. Other SITI productions include: ORESTES; THE MEDIUM; SMALL LIVES/BIG DREAMS; GOING, GOING, GONE; MISS JULIE; CULTURE OF DESIRE; BOB; PRIVATE LIVES; ALICE'S ADVENTURES; CABIN PRESSURE; WAR OF THE WORLDS; ROOM; bobraushen-bergamerica; HAYFEVER; LA DISPUTE; MACBETH and SCORE. Future productions include: HOTEL CASSIOPEIA and REUNION. SITI Company and its members have won numerous awards including Obies, Drama Desks, EDDY'S and many more.

One of the most important aspects of SITI work is the teaching of training techniques to actors and theater artists throughout the United States and the world. Each year SITI finds itself in studios working with old friends and new. The Viewpoints and the Suzuki Method of Actor Training are two distinct methods of actor training used in building and staging SITI productions. SITI Company members, all of whom have been trained by Anne Bogart and Tadashi Suzuki, are specially qualified to introduce and train other theater artists in the approaches. For information regarding SITI Company's New York City Training Studio in both the Suzuki Method of Actor Training and the Viewpoints, please call the SITI Office at 212-868-0860.

Oedipus at Palm Springs

The Five Lesbian Brothers (comprised of writers/performers Mo Angelos, Babs Davy, Dominique Dibbell, Peg Healey, and Lisa Kron [writer of the recent Well]) take twistedly funny aim at Greek tragedy. During a sunny vacation for two committed lesbian couples, the fun-loving surface of tanning, mixed drinks, and golf meets the messy infrastructure of long-term relationships, maternal love, and gay marriage. Sloppy boundaries, plus a sidecar of hidden identity make this the feelweird lesbian tragicomedy of the year.

PERFORMANCES BEGIN JULY 20th!

Other projects under consideration:

Bach at Leipzig

Leipzig, Germany, 1722: seven rival musicians jump at the chance to fill Europe's most sought-after musical post: organmaster at Leipzig. Inspired by actual events, emerging playwright Itamar Moses has crafted a hilarious fugue of schemes and mayhem as each musician deliciously blackmails and bribes to win the position. But which of these schemers will come out on top?

¡El Conquistador!

The international phenomenon of the telenovela comes alive when a Latin American odd-jobsman who follows the daily dramas begins to imagine himself as the stories' characters. Thaddeus Phillips portrays the man and also animates a cast of objects in this work combining drama, film, and puppets!

Safe in Hell

Playwright Amy Freed and director Doug Hughes, who hilariously transported NYTW audiences to Elizabethan England with The Beard of Avon, are at it again. This time they've landed near Plymouth Rock, at the doorstep of Cotton Mather, one of colonial America's most notorious religious firebrands, equal parts witch-hunter and self-appointed demonologist. What possible relevance could there be to post-millennial America? Come join the congregation and find out!

The Scene

Charlie is an out-of-work actor just possibly past his prime and navigating the daily insults of life in modern Manhattan. Mix in Charlie's wife, a TV producer possibly addicted to highlighters; his best friend, who may or may not have Charlie's best interests at heart; and a not-so-wide-eyed young woman fresh off the bus from Ohio, and the stage is set for Theresa Rebeck's (View of the Dome at NYTW, Omnium Gatherum) The Scene, a serious comedy about having and losing it all.

The Seven

In 2003, Will Power wowed critics and NYTW audiences with FLOW, his smart and dynamic one-man show. Power is broadening his creative horizons with The Seven, a full-scale hip-hop musical adaptation of Aeschylus's Seven Against Thebes, the story of brotherly war between Oedipus's sons. Director Jo Bonney (Slanguage at NYTW, Fat Pig) joins Power for this utterly new, dramatic, funny, one-of-a-kind production.

Things of Dry Hours

In Depression-era Alabama, Tice Hogan, a black Sunday school teacher and Communist Party leader, lives at the edge of trouble. When a white factory worker on the run demands sanctuary, Tice and his daughter, Cali, may just be forced to cross the line. In Things of Dry Hours, playwright Naomi Wallace's (Trestle at Pope Lick Creek at NYTW) powerful and poetic language lays bare the dangerous collision of gender, race, and ideology.

Directed by Kenny Leon (Broadway's A Raisin in the Sun).

A new work by Martha Clarke

Director/choreographer Martha Clarke thrilled NYTW audiences with Vienna: Lusthaus (revisited), a gorgeous dream of turn-of-the-last-century Vienna. Like no one else, Clarke combines dance, text, and visual imagery to create visceral, deeply intelligent works of dance-theatre that shine a clear and bright light on humanity. Expect to be dazzled.

THE REPEAT DEFENDERS

The Society of Repeat Defenders is New York Theatre Workshop's community of individual donors who have made a yearly donation of $1,500 or more. By their commitment, these individual donors have taken a leadership role in helping us to develop new, challenging work and support artistic growth among a diverse group of emerging playwrights, actors, and directors (list as of 4/12/05).

NEW YORK THEATRE WORKSHOP (NYTW)

is a leading voice in the world of off-Broadway and within the theatre community in New York and around the world. Since its founding in 1979, NYTW has emerged as a premiere incubator of important new theatre, honoring its mission to explore perspectives on our collective history and respond to the events and institutions that shape our lives. In addition, NYTW is known for its innovative adaptations of classic repertory. Each season, from its home in New York's East Village neighborhood, NYTW presents five to seven new productions, over 80 readings, and numerous workshop productions, for over 60,000 audience members. Over the past twenty-five years, NYTW has developed and produced over 100 new, fully staged works, including Jonathan Larson's Rent, Tony Kushner's Slavs! and Homebody/Kabul, Doug Wright's Quills, Claudia Shear's Blown Sideways Through Life and Dirty Blonde, John Guare's Lydie Breeze, David Rabe's A Question of Mercy, Caryl Churchill's Light Shining in Buckinghamshire, Owners/Traps, Mad Forest and Far Away, and Paul Rudnick's The Most Fabulous Story Ever Told and Valhalla. The 2002 remounting of Martha Clarke's seminal work Vienna: Lusthaus and subsequent American tour was one of the longest-running productions in NYTW's history. NYTW supports artists in all stages of their careers by maintaining a series of workshop programs including work-in-progress readings, summer residencies, and minority artist fellowships. These workshops have enriched the entire theatrical community, as NYTW has participated in the evolution of many plays that have garnered critical and audience acclaim, such as Margaret Edson's Wit and Tony Kushner's Angels in America. In 1991, NYTW received an Obie Award for Sustained Achievement and in 2000 was designated to be part of the Leading National Theatres Program by the Doris Duke Charitable Foundation and the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation.

New York Theatre Workshop is a non-profit organization, and donations are tax-deductible. NYTW is a member of Theatre Communications Group, the Alliance of Resident Theatres/New York, and the League of Off-Broadway Theatres and Producers.
