Director's Note

Virginia Woolf wrote with delicacy, humor, anger, outrage, and passion from the point of view of a highly creative woman in the first half of the 20th century. Her issues are still contemporary. Room examines these notions from the perspective we now share at the beginning of the 21st century. Sampled from a lifetime of Woolf's writings, Room traces the movement of a creative spirit in exquisite crisis. Ellen Lauren portrays an artist in the pressure cooker of articulation. The play is about the room to move, the room to breathe, the room to imagine, emotional room, creative room.

--Anne Bogart

Room is approximately 85 minutes long and will be performed with no intermission.

Room was commissioned by the Wexner Center for the Arts at The Ohio State University with support from the Doris Duke Charitable Foundation, City Theatre in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania and SITI Company.

Who's Who

Anne Bogart (Director) is the Artistic Director of SITI Company, which she founded with Japanese director Tadashi Suzuki in 1992. She is a recipient of 2 Obie Awards, a Bessie Award, a Guggenheim as well as a Rockefeller Fellowship and is a Professor at Columbia University where she runs the Graduate Directing Program. Recent Works with SITI include Hotel Cassiopeia, Intimations for Saxophone, Death and the Ploughman; A Midsummer Night's Dream; La Dispute; Score; bobrauschenbergamerica; Room; War of the Worlds; Cabin Pressure; The Radio Play; Alice's Adventures; Culture of Desire; Bob; Going, Going, Gone; Small Lives/Big Dreams; The Medium; Noel Coward's Hayfever and Private Lives; August Strindberg's Miss Julie; and Charles Mee's Orestes. She is the author of a book of essays entitled A Director Prepares: Seven Essays on Art and Theater and the co-author with Tina Landau of The Viewpoints Book: A Practical Guide to Viewpoints and Composition. Soon to be released by Routledge Press a new book of essays entitled And Then You Act: Making Art in an Unpredictable World.

Jocelyn Clarke (Dramaturg) Jocelyn Clarke is a freelance dramaturg. Former Commissioning Manager of the Abbey Theatre for four years, and former lead theatre critic with The Sunday Tribune for nine years, he has taught dramaturgy and theatre at the Samuel Beckett Centre, Drama Studies Centre Dartington College, and Columbia University. He has written four adaptations for the SITI Company - Bob adapted from interviews with director Robert Wilson, Alice's Adventures from Lewis Carroll's Alice's Adventures Underground, Room from the writings of Virginia Woolf, and Score, based on the writings of Leonard Bernstein – and is currently working on a new project, Reunion. For the Blue Raincoat Theatre Company in Sligo, Ireland he has written adaptations of Carroll's Alice's Adventures In Wonderland, and Through The Looking Glass; for The Ark, an adaptation of Neil Gaiman's The Day I Swapped My Dad For Two Goldfish; and for the Abbey Theatre, The Little Deer, The Crimson Fly, and The Swan Children. His site-specific adaptation of William Shakespeare's The Tempest opened last month in Cork. He is currently working on a new project, Finn, with Mabou Mines that opens next spring, and a new opera libretto based on the Antigone story, which premieres early 2008.

Jesse Hopkins (Assistant Technical Director) Having been born in Stamford New York and raised in Andes. I have always been a local. In 2003 I was given the opportunity to tour Europe as part of The Sound of Music Honor Band and Chorus. Upon returning I volunteered to help Suzanne with the 2003 production of Kraken and enjoyed every minute. I returned last year as assistant technical director for Apple Cove. To me theater is a study of the human condition and a hell of a good time.

Mark Huang (Assistant Sound Designer) Mark Huang has designed sound for such companies as: The New Group, Playwright's Horizons, Stillpoint Productions, The Manhattan Theatre Club, The Thursday Problem, Impact Theatre, Theatre B, The Lincoln Center Theatre, The Atlantic Theatre, The Depot Theatre, Classic Stage Company, The Pearl Theatre Company, The New York Theatre Workshop, Alternate Plan Productions, VoiceChair Productions, Wash & Fold Productions, Shakespeare & Company, Diamondpoint Theatre, Clubbed Thumb Inc., The Roundabout Theatre, The Actors Theatre of Louisville, and Monster(less) Actors Inc. Mark Huang won an Outstanding Sound Design award at the 2005 FringeNYC Festival for Go-Go Kitty, GO!, and was a Drama Desk nominee in 2002 for Cressida Among the Greeks. He is an Associate Member of the SITI Co., a graduate of Grinnell College, and the founder of Doggtown Productions.

She has worked on Gull and Shutter with Lightbox, and Match-Play with the Rude Mechs. Elizabeth is the Artistic Associate of the O'Neill Playwrights Conference.

Ron Nash (Technical Director) holds an MFA in Playwriting at Carnegie Mellon University. As a young playwright he found it necessary to wear many hats in efforts to get his works produced. He taught high school drama, worked in community theatre and designed, built and directed many pieces as a matter of necessity. In '71 he founded The Community Free Theatre and acted as Managing Director for 7 years. By '75 this avant garde theatre, devoted to obscure, challenging but worthy works, and new works, had become a huge hit in Suffolk County and Nash had almost stopped writing. So he came to Harpersfield, bought 10 acres, and built his getaway writer's cabin "with these hands." He has taught at Corning Community College, Waynesburg College and U Mass Boston. He was a faculty member of the "Playwriting and Performance on Nantucket" Program, founded by Lou Roberts, for 13 years. Nash is the Director, Lighting Designer and Set Designer of more than one hundred productions. He has had more than 20 of his plays produced internationally. He has been featured in new play festivals. He has won awards in all aspects of the theatre. He is enthusiastic about his newest effort, a romantic comedy, Love in the 60's, which the Todd Mountain Theater Project will sponsor on August 18th as a staged reading at Stamford's Performance Space through a New York State Council on the Arts Decentralization Program Grant administered in Delaware County by the Roxbury Arts Group, Inc.

Barney O'Hanlon (Movement Dramaturg) Barney as been collaborating with Anne Bogart since 1986. As a member of SITI he has performed nationally and internationally with productions of Hotel Cassiopeia, Intimations for Saxophone, A Midsummer Night's Dream, La Dispute, Hay Fever, bobrauschenbergamerica, War of the Words, War of the Worlds: the Radio Play, Culture of Desire, Cabin Pressure, and Small Lives/ Big Dreams. He has also choreographed and appeared in the world premiere of Nicholas and Alexandra at Los Angeles Opera and Lilith and Seven Deadly Sins at New York City Opera as well as additional Bogart productions at the Alley Theatre, Trinity Rep., River Arts Rep., and Opera/Omaha. Other regional credits include Tina Landau's 1969 at ATL, Stonewall: Night Variations for EnGarde Arts, Deadly Virtues and Hamlet at ATL, and Jon Robin Baitz's A Fair Country for Steppenwolf. His choreography has appeared at BAM's Harvey Theater, Arena Stage, New York Theatre Workshop, New York City Opera, Los Angeles Opera and at the Prince Music Theatre. He recently directed and choreographed the world premiere of systems/ layers a dance/theater collaboration between SITI and the Kentucky based band Rachel's.

The SITI Company, in its second decade of activity, began as an agreement between Tadashi Suzuki and Anne Bogart to establish a new venture in the United States that would emphasize international cultural exchange and collaboration. SITI believes in a commitment to the power of the theater as a source of spiritual strength in the contemporary global environment. Originally envisioned as a summer institute in Saratoga Springs, NY, SITI grew quickly into a year-round theater company based in New York City. Saratoga Springs is now SITI's summer home.

An ensemble-based theater company, SITI exemplifies the disciplines it practices and the artistic values it develops in its work. The company's mission is to create new works for the theater, to perform and tour these productions nationally and internationally, to provide ongoing training for young theater professionals in an approach to acting that forges unique and highly disciplined artists for the theater, and to foster opportunities for cultural exchange with theater professionals and audiences from all over the world.

In addition to Artistic Director Anne Bogart, the SITI Company is comprised of nine actors, four designers, a playwright, stage manager, associate managing director and managing director. The company represents a change in thinking about the relationships between artists and institutions. One way SITI is accomplishing its mission is by integrating into other organizations of the existing American and international theater systems. Examples include our ongoing relationships with the Wexner Center for the Arts, The Ohio State University; Actors Theatre of Louisville; Walker Art Center; On the Boards; Arizona State University; Krannert Center for the Performing Arts; American Repertory Theatre, Court Theatre, New York Theatre Workshop; Classic Stage Company and the Brooklyn Academy of Music. SITI's affiliations with universities include: New York University; Juilliard; Columbia University; The Ohio State University; University of Chicago and Utah State University. Every June, the company continues to gather for our annual Summer Intensive at Skidmore College in Saratoga Springs. Internationally, SITI has performed and led training in Japan, Germany, France, The Czech Republic, Wales, the Georgian Republic, Ireland, Turkey, Italy, Australia, Canada, Colombia, Scotland, England, Israel, Denmark, Holland, Australia, and Singapore.

SITI recently premiered Hotel Cassiopeia at Actors Theatre of Louisville's Humana Festival of New American Plays, systems/layers (a collaboration with music group Rachel's) and Intimations for Saxophone at Arena Stage. Other SITI productions include: Orestes; The Medium; Small Lives/Big Dreams; Going, Going, Gone; Miss Julie; Culture of Desire; Bob; Private Lives; Alice's Adventures; Cabin Pressure; War of the Worlds; Room; bobrauschenbergamerica; Hayfever, La Dispute, Death and the Ploughman, A Midsummer Night's Dream and Score. Future productions include: Under Construction, Radio Macbeth, and Soot & Spit.

Todd Mountain Theater Project is dedicated to discovering new plays by contemporary playwrights and bringing excellent productions to audiences who live, work, and raise their families in our Catskill communities. A dynamic partnership between country and city, TMTP has produced remarkable theater experiences. We seek to provide opportunities for collaboration in all aspects of stagecraft and to offer a supportive environment for theater artists to develop, nurture and promote their work.
