

WHAT IS SITI?

SITI, The Saratoga International Theater Institute, was founded in 1992 by Anne Bogart and Tadashi Suzuki to redefine and revitalize contemporary theater in the United States through an emphasis on international cultural exchange and collaboration. Originally envisioned as a summer institute in Saratoga Springs, New York, SITI has expanded to encompass a year-round program based in New York City with a summer season in Saratoga.

SITI's three ongoing components are the creation of new work, the training of young theater artists, and a commitment to forming partnerships with international collaborators. SITI believes that contemporary American theater must necessarily incorporate artists from around the world and learn from the resulting cross-cultural exchange of dance, music, art, and performance experiences.

The SITI Company is comprised of J. Ed Araiza, Will Bond, Leon Ingulsrud, Ellen Lauren, Kelly Maurer, Jefferson Mays, Tom Nelis, Barney O'Hanlon, Karenjune Sanchez, Megan Wanlass, Stephen Webber, and Darron L. West.

FROM ANNE....

As an end-of-the-year-coming-together, we want to offer our friends, students and collaborators two special weekend intensives. Because the fall composition class was filled to capacity almost instantly, I will conduct another three day composition class in November. This is open to actors, directors, choreographers, writers and composers. In December the company and I will lead a big weekend workshop/bash for those who have studied both the Suzuki and Viewpoint training. Please join us for these two wonderful ways to end 1996.
