The performance lasts approximately 90 minutes with no intermission.

Originally produced in New York City by Abingdon Theatre Company; Tony Speciale Artistic Director. Chess Match No. 5 was developed with support and insight from The John Cage Trust.

Early development of Chess Match No. 5 occurred during SITI Work/Space, SITI Company's in-house residency for new play development, which was supported by the National Endowment for the Arts, the Howard Gilman Foundation, and public funds from the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs. This production was funded, in part, by the Fan Fox and Leslie R. Samuels Foundation and the Dramatists Guild Fund.

DIRECTOR'S NOTE:

The influence of John Cage upon the cultural landscape is monumental. His influence upon me has been consistently mysterious yet practical, clarifying and also liberating. Chess Match No. 5 is an opportunity to spend time in the presence of Cage's philosophical, artistic, and political musings. Not interested in debate, Cage was nevertheless deeply committed to the art of conversation. The Latin root of the word conversation implies "to turn with, or together." His many conversations with friends, musicologists, fellow artists, and scholars who came to speak with him form the basis for this play. We can now take our own turn on the proverbial dance floor with the words that he left behind. – Anne Bogart

SITI Company was built on the bedrock of ensemble. We believe that through the practice of collaboration, a group of artists working together over time can have a significant impact upon both contemporary theater and the world at large. Through our performances, educational programs and collaborations with other artists and thinkers, SITI Company will continue to challenge the status quo, train to achieve artistic excellence in every aspect of our work, and offer new ways of seeing and of being as both artists and as global citizens. SITI Company is committed to providing a gymnasium-for-the-soul where the interaction of art, artists, audiences and ideas inspire the possibility for change, optimism and hope.

Founded in 1992 by Anne Bogart, Tadashi Suzuki, and a group of likeminded artists, SITI Company began as an agreement to redefine and revitalize contemporary theater in the United States through an emphasis on international cultural exchange, training and collaboration. Originally envisioned as a summer institute in Saratoga Springs, New York, SITI expanded to encompass a year-round Season inclusive of touring, the creation of new work and running a biennial Conservatory program for nine months of the year to cultivate the next generation of independent theater artists. Based in New York City, SITI continues to operate its international training program during its summer season in Saratoga. The Company is known nationally and internationally as a top-level artistic collective that generates groundbreaking theater.

In addition to Co-Artistic Directors Anne Bogart, Leon Ingulsrud and Ellen Lauren, SITI Company is comprised of eight actors, four designers and a playwright. The company represents a change in thinking about the relationships between artists and institutions. Offering performances from our varied repertoire, and workshops in the unique theater training we champion, SITI Company is dedicated to establishing long lasting relationships with theater presenters and their communities around the world.
