WHAT: OUT THERE 11
January 7-31

The eleventh season of the Walker Art Center and Southern Theater's celebrated OUT THERE series continues the tradition of presenting some of the most innovative and unclassifiable performers in dance, theater, music, and performance art.

On three of the four weekends of OUT THERE 11, on Saturdays, January 9, 16, and 23, at midnight, performances of Balls will take place at the Southern Theater. This weekly performance party, now in its seventh year, is hosted by local chanteuse and cabaret impresario Leslie Ball.

WEEK 4: JANUARY 28 - 31
Anne Bogart/SITI
Bob

"Startling, iconoclastic, daring, and inventive. Will Bond is breathtaking."

Bob is an elegantly stylized and innovative new work by the visionary American theater director Anne Bogart, loosely based on the life of avant-garde director-artist Robert Wilson. This sharply crafted and engaging piece, complemented by an elaborate set and sound design, is brought to life by the solo tour de force performance of long-time SITI member Will Bond, who offers a warmly engaging yet enigmatic portrayal of an artist's journey in our modern world. The Saratoga International Theatre Institute (SITI), well known for its insightful and canny approach to contemporary theater, takes a dip into the currents of modern celebrity and American artistry.

WHEN: Thursday-Saturday, January 28-30, 8 pm; Sunday, January 31, 7 pm.

WHERE: Southern Theater, 1420 Washington Ave. S. at Seven Corners, Minneapolis

TICKETS: $15 (Walker members - $12; Thursday $7.50)
