OUT THERE II: ANN BOGART/SITI "BOB"

"Bob" is an elegantly stylized and innovative new work by the visionary American theater director Anne Bogart, loosely based on the life of avant-garde director-artist Robert Wilson. This sharply crafted and engaging piece, complemented by an elaborate set and sound design, is brought to life by the solo tour de force performance of long-time SITI member Will Bond, who offers a warmly engaging yet enigmatic portrayal of an artist's journey in our modern world. Through Jan. 31, 7:00 p.m., Southern Theater, 1420 Washington Ave. S., Mpls., (612) 375-7622.

Sun 31

THE BAKKEN TRIO AT THE WALKER ART CENTER

For nearly 20 years the Bakken Trio's dynamic chamber-music events have promised audiences a certain degree of daring and a wide breadth of historical periods, places, emotions. Stephanie Arado (violin), Judy Lin (piano), Katja Linfield (cello), and Fernando Mesa (guest percussionist) will perform a concert of 20th-century music, 7:00 p.m., Walker Art Center, Winland Pl., (612) 375-7622.

DOUG VARONE AND DANCERS AT THE SOUTHERN THEATER

Growing up, dancer/choreographer Doug Varone was smitten with Gene Kelly's athleticism and Fred Astaire's fluid finesse. These luminaries influenced Varone's becoming a modern dance maker who "paints with wide strokes of human energy." A repeat visitor to the Twin Cities to work with students in the University of Minnesota Dance Department, Varone is about to stage the most extensive residency here for his New York-based Doug Varone and Dancers. Co-presented by the Walker Art Center and Northrop Auditorium as part of the 1998-1999 Discover series, the engagement will have two performances of signature works, Feb. 4 & 5, 8:00 p.m., Southern Theater, 1420 Washington Ave., Mpls., (612) 375-7622. Feb. 4-5
