Is connected some kind of way.

Once you put it all together, it's just obvious.

Becker the filthy, rag-dressed, disheveled, offhand derelict enters, struggling with a car door on wheels that has a leash

 and, at the end of the leash, a little mechanical contraption
 like a dog, though it doesn't look at all like a dog--
 it's just a small piece of junk on a leash.

6 Setting Out

A trucker enters in a bathtub on wheels, a spotlight on his head as though emanating from a flashlight set in the mass of crunched steel where the showerhead should be, and maybe a One Way sign on the side of the tub, and talks of setting out in the morning in his truck:

the Big Dipper is bright over my shoulder BUMP
against the dark road we live on.

And it's quiet.

And if there's a moon
it's still up and hovering
over the little lake.

The front range of hills is a dark silhouette in the background.

In the evening ducks and geese are on the pond
and the fish are standing on their tails.

The quarry I load out of is surrounded by red monoliths of rock
like sentinels

with flocks of blackbirds perched on top.

When the weather's hot the afternoon sky is blue,

SUSAN

So often we find
we look at someone
and
we are disgusted.

BECKER

Oh yes.

SUSAN

We think: here is a real dirtball
and we think
if we get too close
we might catch something.

BECKER

Yes we do.

SUSAN

And yet, as far as we know,
we ourselves might be the contagious ones
not knowing what it is we have
but having it even so
without knowing it.

BECKER

lock him up, put him away
send him to an island
you know, the island of the damned,
the island of the rejects
whatever
just get him out of here
And yet, life twists and turns
sometimes like lightning
you don't know
suddenly you've got cancer
and you are facing death
or in the least likely place
you see someone
and you fall in love
you look at the guy
and you think:
I don't think so
and yet there it is
you don't know why
your friends all say: are you crazy?
you love him?
but you love him so much
you just want to knock him down and kiss him

madly]

10 Making Nice

A lone man, Allen, wearing shower cap and towel,
enters and sings a song to smooth things over--
The Inkspots' song: I don't want to set the world on fire--
or something else to distract from the fight
and get everyone's attention moving elsewhere--
and it could be that the three guys already on stage,
Phil, Wilson and Becker the filthy derelict,
sing backup for Allen:

11 Another Lover

Another man, Carl, enters and dances to the song,
and after Allen sings,
while the music is still playing,
Allen, the singer, joins Carl, the dancer,
so that they dance together.

One of the backup singers takes over as soloist
when the lyrics pick up again.

NOTE: as the piece goes on, there will be several relationships among the characters contained in dialogue--but also all sorts of relationships are possible without dialogue, in
bits of physical actions that occur on the side,
and in dances that suggest deeper, more lingering relationships.

19 Table Talk: The Stars

ALLEN

The way the stars are, with your naked eyes you can't see much.

SUSAN

Oh.

No. Unless you know a lot.

ALLEN

But even looking at the stars,
I would rather say the night sky,
you see two kinds of things...3 or 4 kinds of things.

SUSAN

You see planets, you see stars, you see meteorites,
you can see aircrafts ...
all these things...

ALLEN

so it's a great show
the way the planets appear and dance around,
we follow it all the time
and we have on our bulletin boards in the back ...
and we have a chart of the whole thing,
and people record that stuff...
because we know these motions very well.
It's the foundation probably of qualitative science.

SUSAN

The early work of people trying to understand...

ALLEN

first just day and night,
then the seasons
and then the stars and then the planets...
there are different things that go back tens of thousands of years,
older than written history.

SUSAN
Right.

ALLEN
There is a great deal more space than time, you know.

SUSAN
No.

ALLEN
Yes.
And this is because the signals we can get
all come in at the speed of light...

SUSAN
that's really fast.

ALLEN
Yes. And they cover a great distance.
So it doesn't take them much time to cover a lot of distance--
that's how you get more space than time in the universe.

SUSAN
Right.
Right.

but you don't love me in that way.

SUSAN

I never pretended to love you in that way.

WILSON

I can't go on in life
without being loved in that way.

SUSAN

A lot of people are never loved in that way.

WILSON

How can you tell
if you are really alive
if you're never loved in that way?

SUSAN

What do you mean: in that way?

WILSON

Unless I thought you were crazy for me
so crazy for me you couldn't stand it
you just had to kiss me
you just had to knock me down and kiss me
because you couldn't stand it
that you laughed at my jokes
or thought I was so cool
or like said really intelligent things that made you think
maybe not all of those things
but even just any one of them
just one of them

[silence]

You see what I mean, not even one.

SUSAN

I'm sorry.

WILSON

Why did you live with me, then?

SUSAN

I thought I loved you
but I guess I didn't know what love was.
I liked you in a way
not much
but in some ways
or at least in the ways I thought guys could be likeable
and the rest of it I thought maybe that's just how guys are
and as time went on maybe it wouldn't matter so much
but then I find it does matter
I can't help myself
some stuff you do
I just can't get over it
and the stuff I liked:
that I thought you were a responsible person
and mature

solid and dependable
all those turned out not to be true at all
so what am I left with?

WILSON

It's not your fault.

SUSAN

No, it's not.

WILSON

Or maybe it is
that you weren't thinking very clearly
or being very focussed when you made your choice
and a lot of people were depending on that choice being really clear
or at least I was

SUSAN

I know.

I'm sorry.

WILSON

Being sorry doesn't cut it somehow.
I know people always say they're sorry
and probably they are
and I don't think it means nothing
I'm sure it means something
and it's essential for people to feel it
and to say it
in order for life to go on at all
and yet
the truth is
it doesn't cut it.
I'm sorry: but it doesn't.

22 Table Talk: Bob's Mom's Grandmother

Bob's mom talking about family photos in album, (talking about what's NOT in the pictures projected behind her):

BOB'S MOM

When I was sixteen my grandmother had to be put into a home. My grandmother had terrorized my mother and uncle for so many years it was difficult to feel much in the way of empathy or compassion or love for her. But I related to her in one way. We shared a real passion for the color red. My grandmother's house was a museum. She collected cut Italian colored glass decanters and glasses. Each object uniquely shaped. Colors rich. I valued those objects deeply. I wanted to play with them, to make new shapes of them, to make new surfaces for them. I wanted to smash them and see what they looked like as heaps, to see how light played on their shattered surfaces. My grandmother always wore a large rectangular ruby pendant on a gold chain. I dreamed of having that one day. Of having that color. When my grandmother died I asked what became of the ruby. It turned out she had gone into the home years before and everything was sold at a yard sale. The objects she collected--beautiful objects--all discarded. Thrown out. No one wanted them. Cast off. I would have preferred to smash them against brick walls to see what they might have become.

Well, art was not a part of our lives.

OK.

The conspirators include a folksy meteorologist, an embittered homosexual, a Chinese cameraman, a Lesbian, a Mexican pistolero, a Negro castrated in his cradle by rat bites. The time and place for countdown depends of course on prevailing winds and the meteorologist is busy with continual calculations, weather maps, barometer and wind reads, telescopic observation of clouds and birds. There are also instruments of his own invention. He is contemptuous of weather reports.

CLEM, THE METEOROLOGIST

Doesn't know a typhoon from a fart. You see that vulture up yonder? He can tell you more than a room full of weather maps and barometers. The birds know.

27 Crazy for You

WILSON [confronting Susan]

So

it turns out

you come to me

to be with me

and then

as soon as you feel reassured that I love you

you go back to your husband

and then if you talk to me on the phone

and I seem to be slipping away from you

if I seem anxious or uncertain

then you come back to me and make love with me

and stay with me

until you know you have me again

I can't help myself loving you

and then you go back to your husband again

so it turns out

the only way I can keep you is by making you feel anxious

keeping you on edge

making you feel I'm about to drop you

so the way to have you

is to reject you

and if I don't reject you

then I don't have you

we are in a relationship that is sick

where you show love by showing aversion

you show aversion by showing love

so that you live a backwards life

and the one person you want to love and cherish

and show how much you care

is the one person you will drive away by doing any of those things

how can we go on like this?

this is insane

this will make us both insane

this is how people go insane!

[As this next scene goes along,
Susan starts to eat compulsively,
taking pieces of cake or cupcakes from the table--
at first absentmindedly, at a normal cake-eating pace,
and then more and more compulsively,
until she is stuffing it into her mouth.]

BECKER

I think I know how he feels myself.
I thought you cared for me, too.

SUSAN

I did care for you.
There was something about you
I don't even know what it was that just hit me
I couldn't help myself
but then it turns out
it was like a summer storm
it passed as quickly as it came
and then it was over.

BECKER

Maybe it wasn't over for me.

SUSAN

I'm sorry.

BECKER

I don't think you can just drop someone like that
and just say I'm sorry.

SUSAN

I didn't just say I'm sorry
I am sorry.

BECKER

This is why some people call women fickle.

SUSAN

I don't think it has anything to do with being fickle.

How it is for women:

Women feel what they feel when they feel it
and then when they don't feel it any more they don't feel it.

Unlike a man

who won't know what he feels when he feels it

and then later on

he'll realize how he felt

and so he'll talk himself into feeling it again

when he doesn't feel it

because he thinks he should be consistent about the positions

he takes

and stick to them

so a man always thinks he feels things he doesn't feel

and so he never really knows how he feels at all.

BECKER

That could be true.

SUSAN

Of course it's true.

Pretty soon

you're going to thank god you had such a narrow escape

you're going to feel lucky I dumped you

BECKER

I'm never going to feel that.

SUSAN

Maybe not.

BECKER

I think you must be a sort of a tease
or worse
some kind of seducer and dumper kind of person
who is just a loose cannon
cutting a swath through men
leaving them wrecked all around you
what is that all about?

[she speaks, with a mouth full of cake,
eating as she speaks,
with greater and greater animation as she goes on,
till she is yelling through a mouth full of cake]

SUSAN

Maybe that would be about something
if it were in any way true
but it is not in any way true
I'm a person who is looking for true love
like anyone else
except the difference is
I am trying not to be afraid of my feelings
and censor things
and lie and lie and lie all the time
pretending I feel like this or that going with some guy because I couldn't be sure any more
how I felt about him
because he had some things I liked and other things I didn't and trying to talk myself into not caring about the things I cared about
and caring about the things I didn't care about
because I've done that a lot in the past
so I am trying to let my feelings lead me through life
And
feelings are feelings
they come and go.

So probably I'm just as disoriented as you are
and left in the lurch
suddenly dropped
or thrown down the stairs
it's not as though this is not a struggle for me too
but the one thing you can be sure of is if ever I am sure of how I feel in a way that is the kind of feeling that I know will last
then when that time comes
if it so happens that I do tell you I love you
then you can be sure of it.

37 The Galaxy

ALLEN

This connection between time and space is everything...and you can't interpret or judge easily the way we can around here. That's why we're not sure of many things because we have only one interpretation--the way things look to us here on earth at one particular moment.

What we did: we thought it was, at that point, urgently necessary to do that. But I don't know why that is. In any case, it all happened and it's very hard to see how it could have gone otherwise.

But the place itself was fascinating, especially for a scientist engaged in the work...

it was dangerous...it seemed very responsible, it demanded everybody's attention and we worried a great deal about what was happening ...

But, meanwhile, it was a beautiful place, a high mountain, 8,000 feet high, fair weather in New Mexico, in the winter it snowed, in the summer it was hot, never humid. The snow would cover the whole world in two feet of snow overnight and a week later it would be gone...no trace of it...

And when the snow was there you'd poke a hole , you'd look into it and you would see a deep blue color...because of the sky...the shadows are blue against it....for the same reason. The bright blue sky light...the bright blue sky light fills in the shadows and the shadows are intercepting the light from the sun itself. Just that little bright disc.

So behind it, in the shadow, like the earth's shadow, there's a kind of local light that has a blue tinge because the sky has not turned off. At night, the sky is turned off because the sun is what illuminates the sky, illuminates the earth and the sky, the sky is just there and we see the air in the shadow.

Four ladies to the center and back to the bar

throw in the clutch, put 'er in low
it's twice around that ring you go

I thought I heard a chicken sneeze
I looked around here's what I saw
a bald headed maid with a pretty little taw
too old, too old
I'm too old to cut the mustard any more
etc.

[He claps his hands in rhythm to the music,
and the music cuts out into ecstatic mode--
and he sings the succeeding verses--
as square dancers,
do flat out clog-stomping
so that they seem to float in the air
and only occasionally it seems the heel of a boot stomps the floor
as they float in ecstasy.

40 Chicken Jokes

Phil tells chicken jokes to distract from the solemnity

for example:

A chicken went into a library
and went up to the circulation desk
and said to the librarian:
Booooook!
Book! Book! Book!
So the librarian gave the chicken four books,
and the chicken left
and came back later that day,
put the four books down and said:
Book! Book!
so the librarian took back the first four books
and gave the chicken two new books
and the chicken left
and came back later the same day,
put down the two books and said:
Book! Book! Book!
so the librarian took back the two books
and gave the chicken three new books
and the chicken left.
But this time the librarian
followed the chicken out of the library
to see what it was doing with these books
since no one could read fast enough
to go through those nine books in a single day.
So the librarian followed the chicken down a dirt road
and right down a path through the woods
and came to a pond
where the chicken was handing the books
one by one
to a frog
who kept saying of one book after another
Read it! Read it! Read it!

CARL

OK.

How we put the show together.

First, I want to welcome everyone

I'm glad you could all come tonight.

We don't often get to do a show like this

where we can just put on whatever we like

lets just do whatever we feel like

and hope you'll enjoy it.

I often feel those of us who are in the museum world
are particularly blessed.

Because we get to explore our feelings

whatever they may be

that's a sort of freedom. (VONDO STANDER)

You know, that's how it is to deal with art

because art is made in the freedom of the imagination
with no rules

it's the only human activity like that

where it can do no one any harm

so it is possible to be completely free

and see what it may be that people think and feel

when they are completely free

in a way, what it is to be human when a human being is free

and so art lets us practice freedom

and helps us know what it is to be free

and so what it is to be human.

SLOTAIR QL

SLOP QL

But, still, it often seems to me almost miraculous

how we can put things here in the museum

and ordinary folks

my mom and dad and my own neighbors

and I myself

will come to see things

sometimes things that I myself find completely incomprehensible
 and really offensive
 people will come to our museum
 and think: oh, that's interesting
 or, oh, that's stupid
 but they don't really hold it against the show
 they just move on and look at something else and think
 oh that's cool.

And I wonder:

how do we get away with that?

And I think well, we are a free people
 that's why

and we understand that

in a way maybe other people in the world don't

we like an adventure

often we might think

well, that's a piece of junk

but that's how this fellow sees the world

and there's a certain pleasure in seeing things from his point
 of view

we are a patient people

no matter what you hear people say

and a tolerant people

and a fearless, open people

that's how it is for us

I think that's how it is to be an American.

We're all unique.

It's a precious thing to compare ourselves to nothing else.

This is my working attitude.

I don't feel shame in my joy.

Did you have to think about it?

BOB, THE PIZZA BOY

Well, no.

Not until I was reading the Aquarian gospel did I,
did I strike upon,
you know I had almost had ends meet because I had certain uh you know
to-be-or-not-to-be reflections about of course what I did.
And uh,

ALLEN

I'm sorry, what was that?

BOB, THE PIZZA BOY

Triple murder.

Sister, husband. Sister, husband,
and a nephew, my nephew.

And uh, you know, uh, manic depressive.

CARL

Do you mind my asking what instruments did you use?
What were the instruments?

BOB, THE PIZZA BOY

It was a knife.

It was a knife.

ALLEN

A knife?

BOB, THE PIZZA BOY

Yes.

ALLEN

So then, the three of them were all...

BOB, THE PIZZA BOY

Ssssss...

(points to slitting his throat)

like that.

WILSON

So, uh,
do you think that as time goes by,
this episode will just become part of your past,
or has it already...

BOB, THE PIZZA BOY

It has already become part of my past.

CARL

Has already become part of your past.
No sleepless nights? No...

BOB, THE PIZZA BOY

Oh, no. In the first three or four years there was a couple of nights where I would stay up thinking about how I did it, you know. And what they said...they told me later there were so ~~many stab wounds in my sister and I said no, that's not true~~
~~at all, you know. So I think I had a little blackout during the~~ ~~murders, but uh...~~

[he sits,
making himself at home]

~~Well, uh, they said there was~~ something like thirty stab wounds in my sister, and I remember distinctly I just cut her throat once. That was all, you know, and I don't know where the thirty stab wounds came from. So that might have been some kind of blackout thing. You know, I was trying to re-re- re- uh, re- uh, uh, resurrect the uh, the crime--my initial steps, etc. You know, and uh, and uh, I took, as a matter of fact, it came right out of the, I was starting the New Testament at the time, matter of fact I'm about the only person you'll ever meet that went to, to do a triple murder with a Bible in his, in his pocket, and, and, listening to a radio. I had delusions of grandeur with the radio. Uh, I had a red shirt on that was symbolic of, of some lines in Revelation, in the, in the New Testament. Uh I had a red motor...as a matter of fact, I think it was chapter 6 something, verses 3, 4, or 5, or something where uh it was a man, it was a man. On a red horse. And, and, a man on a red horse came out, and uh, and uh uh, and he was given a knife, and unto him was given the power to kill and destroy. And I actually thought I was this person. And I thought that my red horse was this red Harley Davidson I had. And I wore...it was just, you know, it was kind of a symbolic type of thing. And and and uh, you know, uh after the murders I thought the nephew was, was the, was a new devil or something, you know. This, this is pretty bizarre now that I think back on it. I thought he was a new devil and uh, uh. I mean basically I love my sister, there's no question about that. But at times my sister hadn't come through uh for me. You know and I was in another, one of these manic attacks. And uh, and uh, uh, uh, you know, uh, I was just uh, I was just you know, I mean I was fed up with all this you know one day they treat me good and then they tell all these other people that I was a maniac and watch out for me and etc. and like that. And uh, uh, so I went to them that night to tell them I was all in trouble again, you know, and could they put me up for the night, you know, and they told me to take a hike and uh so uh, believing that I had the power to kill, uh you know, that was that for them. You know. I mean when family turns you out, that's a real blow. You know. But uh, back to the original subject of forgiveness. If I forgive myself I'm forgiven. You know that's essentially the answer. I'm the captain of my own ship. I run my own ship. Nobody can crawl in my ship unless they get permission. I just (he nods) "over there." You know. "I'm forgiven." You know. Ha-ha. You know. (Laughs.) It's as simple as that. You know. You're your own priest, you're your own leader, you're your own captain. You know. You run your own show, a lot of people know that.

Who ordered a pizza?

ALLEN

Oh.

SUSAN

A pizza.

ALLEN

I don't think anyone here ordered a pizza.

BOB, THE PIZZA BOY

Someone ordered a pizza.

I don't go around picking up pizzas
if nobody ordered one.

ALLEN

I think there's been some mistake.

BOB, THE PIZZA BOY

I think you are the one who is making a mistake
if you think nobody

is going to pay me for the fucking pizza.

I paid for the pizza.

You know: pizza

is not returnable.

ALLEN

Right.

I'll pay you for the pizza.

BOB, THE PIZZA BOY

Plain cheese.

ALLEN

Right.

Here.

Keep the change.

BOB, THE PIZZA BOY [checking the money Allen has
given him]

Right.

Thanks.

Appreciate it.

Which way did I come in?

[the others all look at one another]

ALLEN

Over there.

Right out that way.

BOB, THE PIZZA BOY

Right.

Thanks again.

We hear a newspaper boy's bike bell.]

Yes, I really do.

And I think if you think a person's agreeable and

then I think there's something there you can't explain
that gives you real

CARL
Oh.

ALLEN
I find
you give delight to me.

CARL
Oh. Well.
That's what I'd hope for more than anything.

ALLEN
So would I.

CARL
And you're not sorry about it?

ALLEN
How do you mean?

CARL
That you find delight in someone
who doesn't seem to you in any other way

who doesn't perhaps have those qualities
that you can count on

48 Falling in Love

CARL

I think I fell in love with him
and I mean I fell in love with him like
the first time I saw him
I just couldn't stop looking at him
he was a soccer player
and I don't go to soccer games
and I don't like jocks
but I was there because a friend had taken me and bla bla bla
never mind
but I was walking to our seats in the bleachers
and I saw him walking along the sidelines
and I just couldn't take my eyes off him
I was like a cartoon joke
I was looking at him and walking
and I could have walked right into a wall
and I think the reason I fell in love with him
is that he reminded me of a friend from high school
who reminded me of a guy I saw in a movie.

TRUCKER'S GIRL

~~At that time~~ When

I was nineteen

so it seemed to me I shouldn't be tied down to one guy

I loved him

and when we were together we were just with each other

but if I went to Paris, for example,

I thought I should have love affairs because I was nineteen

and I thought he should, too,

and I told him I was having love affairs and he should, too,

and I wished he did

both because it would have made me feel less guilty

and also because I would have thought he wasn't such a nerd
if he did

but he said he only cared for me

and it made me feel like such a bad person

that's definitely one of the reasons I broke up with him

and then, when we broke up,

he told me he had been having affairs with other women

and then that just tore it

after that, I just thought he was a jerk.

Well, it depends on what you want to predict...I can predict the death of the sun quite accurately probably within ten to twenty percent ...I don't think I'd be wrong by more than one billion years plus or minus. You can predict the positions of the planets 100s of years into the future very accurately because we have studied vectors so much. But if you want to predict what's going to happen two years from now in Haiti you can't say very much--because the human system, that's a very complicated system.

53 Whitman

BECKER

O take my hand Walt Whitman!
 Such gliding wonders! such sights and sounds!
 Such join'd unended links, each hook'd to the next,
 Each answering all, each sharing the earth with all.

What widens within you, Walt Whitman?
 What waves and soils exuding?
 What climes? what persons and cities are here?
 Who are the infants, some playing, some slumbering?
 Who are the girls? who are the married women?
 Who are the groups of old men going slowly with their arms
 about each
     other's necks

What rivers are these? what forests and fruits are these?
 What are the mountains call'd that rise so high in the mists?
 What myriads of dwellings are they fill'd with dwellers?

2040 (FIN)

Within me latitude widens, longitude lengthens, Asia, Africa, Europe, are to the east--America is provided for
 in the west,
 Banding the bulge of the earth winds the hot equator,
 Curiously north and south turn the axis-ends,
 Within me is the longest day, the sun wheels in slanting
 rings, it does not
     set for months,
 Stretch'd in due time within me the midnight sun just rises
 above the
     horizon and sinks again,
 Within me zones, seas, cataracts, forests, volcanoes, groups,
 Malaysia, Polynesia, and the great West Indian islands.

What do you hear, Walt Whitman?

I hear the workman singing and the farmer's wife singing,
I hear in the distance the sounds of children and of animals
early in the
day,

~~I hear emulous shouts of Australians pursuing the world—horse,~~

I hear the Spanish dance with castanets in the chestnut shade,
to the rebeck
and guitar,

I hear continual echoes of the Thames,

I hear fierce French liberty songs,

I hear of the Italian boat-sculler the musical recitative of old poems....

What do you see, Walt Whitman?

Who are they you salute, and that one after another salute
you?

I see a great round wonder rolling through space,
I see diminute farms, hamlets, ruins, graveyards, jails,
factories, palaces,
hovels, huts of barbarians, tents of nomads upon the surface....

I see the tracks of the railroads of the earth....

I see the filaments of the news of the wars, deaths, losses,
gains, passions,
of my race....

I see the site of the old empire of Assyria, and that of Persia,
and that of India....

I see the battlefields of the earth, grass grows upon them and blossoms and
corn....

I see all the menials of the earth, laboring,

I see all the prisoners in the prisons,

I see the defective human bodies of the earth,

The blind, the deaf and dumb, idiots, hunchbacks, lunatics,

The pirates, thieves, betrayers, murderers, slave-makers of
the earth,

2050 GREENS IN LIGHT BIRDS LQ104

The helpless infants, and the helpless old men and women.

I see the male and female everywhere,
I see the serene brotherhood of philosophers,
I see the constructiveness of my race,
I see the results of perseverance and industry of my race,
I see ranks, colors, barbarisms, civilizations, I go among them, I mix
indiscriminately,
And I salute all the inhabitants of the earth.

54 Bob

[Late evening.

Do we hear an operatic aria faintly in the background?
a man singing a love solo]

BOB'S MOM

He was a sweet boy.

Of course, he loved his bicycle.

He would float for hours in the canal in an inner tube
and he built a go-cart out of wooden boxes.

We belonged to the Church of Christ
so of course there was
no drinking, no movies, no gambling
not even card-playing for fun,
no kissing before marriage,
no dancing.

You can be sure the Pleasure Pier on Lake Sabine,
which had a dance pavillion,
was definitely off limits.

Everything you did,
if it could possibly be interpreted as an indulgence,
was evil.

That's how it was then.

Everyone was poor those days.

We were a rural people so I knew how to sew.

I could arrange the paper patterns so close together on the fabric

I didn't waste a bit.

I scrubbed all the clothes on a washboard

I planted vegetables and canned them every year

and we raised chickens in the backyard for Sunday dinner.

We had linoleum on the floor in the kitchen.

He was a handsome boy
 with a clear, fair complexion.
 But he was not full of himself.
 He was humble within himself,
 and kind to everyone.

He was very gentle,
 soft-spoken, almost bordering on shy.

At grade school he would hide during recess
 he was just mortified if anyone noticed him.
 And at home he would climb trees to avoid being seen.

Reading was difficult for him.
 Sometimes he saw double,
 sometimes he saw words backwards and upside down.

You knew he was going to go someplace,
 you just didn't know where.

Isn't it something
 how he can see the beauty in almost anything!

We were ordinary working people.
 Art was not in our world.

At the end of the piece: a man's voice says:

"OK!

That feels good to me."

Curtain Call

For the second bow, the actors, in a line, can sing a song.

On the first line they make little talking signs with their hands.

On the second line they make flapping chicken wings with their arms.

On the third line they butt wiggle into a squatting position.

And, on the fourth line, they do little hand wing flapping.

I don't want to be a chicken.

I don't want to be a duck.

So I guess I'm outta luck.

Quack, quack, quack, quack.

I don't want to be a chicken.

I don't want to be a duck.

So kiss my butt.

Quack, quack, quack, quack.

Repeat as necessary.
